    Since its inception in 1946, the college has been trying its level best to achieve varied goals and objectives as enshrined in constitution of the institution. It has been shaping its curricular and administrative performance keeping pace with the emerging trends in higher education.
</li>
<li>
    New courses/subjects have been incorporated in its curricular framework from time to time to fulfill the aspirations and needs of the students. It has been one of the major objectives of the College Management to provide adequate opportunities for the ruralites and deprived sections of the society by bringing higher and technical education at their doorstep.
