            University Grants Commission has entrusted the College to manage a Network Resource Centre for providing updated information regarding the activities, programmers and schemes of UGC to the students and faculty members. The College has entrusted the responsibility to look after this NRC to Department of Public Administration. The UGC (NRC) is located in the Main Library of the College.

            UGC Network Resource Centre provides free internet service to students from 09.30 a.m to 04.00 pm. Besides this, the centre has arranged the subject-wise list of websites to enable the students to prepare their study notes. 50 to 70 students daily visit this centre and avails the facility of internet. The library staff also helps the un-trained students in surfing the internet.
